

Sharpen up your video story.

Get it looking and sounding classy.

Smartphone video DIY workshops and coaching give you and your team the skills to tell your own stories using the video capability on your device.

- Communicate your product/service and initiatives
- Tell your clients' stories and empower your staff to tell theirs
- Create your own training and how-to video resource

You will learn how to shoot, edit and publish short videos on and from your device.

Wherever you are, we come to you and run 4 hour workshops for groups of around ten people. Backed up with regularly refreshed tutorial videos and notes/blogs as apps and devices develop.

Our intro and refresher workshops are popular, as are our advanced options as clients become more digitally literate. We also provide a full mentoring package, complete with incentivised film competitions, and 1 month coaching/critiquing with help-desk.

With over 50 NZ clients and growing, we're seeing repeat business and positive endorsements.
